Good Morning Chris. I hope you and Mike had a good dinner last night.

Yesterday, I forgot to point out that we have our All Chiefs Briefing today at 5 pm.

When we set it up on Friday, I did not realize that today is Family Day. Nevertheless, if the time works for you, Steve, Mike, and Carson, the Chiefs will appreciate an update, especially on what the coming week and next weekend looks like. It will be a great opportunity to thank them as well. If the time does not work for you guys, let me know. Thanks

Thanks Chris. With there being an actual convoy planned to commence at the BWB tomorrow, is WR doing more having a QRT at the bridge? Do we know if they have all the other pieces in play, like PLT and assigning a CIC. The info seems to be just sitting in the Hendon report, with no one indicating that they have it received it and auctioned it accordingly, which ideally would be the MCIC.

Things are good in ottawa. We are planning on decreasing over next 12,24,48hrs. Lots of buffer built in. We have 280 on ground today. Can reduce that over the next day. Good demonization plan in place. We will support through the week with QRT teams (4 cars x 2 members) and be in shape for next weekend if anything is coming in to assist OPs with ramps.
